

A Call for Nominations for Outstanding Kansas Reading Educator

One of the most prestigious awards given by the Kansas Reading Association is the Outstanding Kansas Reading Educator, which recognizes outstanding teachers who have made significant contributions to reading. The Outstanding Kansas Reading Educator Committee invites nominations for this prestigious award to be presented during the 2009 KRA Conference in Topeka in October.

Eligibility for this award includes:

- Educator of preschool through college, at public, private, parochial, vocational technical, community colleges, and universities,
- Minimum of three years membership in KRA
- Minimum of ten years experience in the field of education
- Has made significant contributions to reading

The nomination form and the guidelines may be downloaded from the KRA website at www.kansasread.org. Nominations are due by July 22, 2009. They may be submitted at Summer Leadership on July 22 or mailed to Mary Collins at the following address. Please plan now to honor those in your councils who should be recognized for all they have contributed to reading. If you have questions or desire more information, please contact:
